

Mondial Assistance signs Insurance Deal with Eurostar

Paris September 27 2007 – Eurostar has chosen Mondial Assistance to offer its customers travel insurance solutions tailored to their individual needs. This agreement concerns Belgium, France and the U.K with the potential to insure up to 7.85 million passengers who chose to cross the English Channel with Eurostar during 2006.

Mondial Assistance have created an insurance offering enabling customers to purchase their insurance on the www.eurostar.com website at the same time as they book their trip. Mondial Assistance has adapted its products to the specifications of each of the three countries, particularly in the U.K., where for example Single Trip policies include free travel insurance for one child travelling with an adult. Ski insurance is also part of the U.K. offering, providing cover for passengers travelling on outbound London trains taking passengers directly to the ski slopes during winter months. Insurance solutions designed for French and Belgian travellers include cancellation coverage, lost or stolen baggage and medical assistance.

«Mondial Assistance has an excellent reputation and its expertise in e-commerce is widely recognised in Europe. It is therefore perfectly natural that Eurostar chose Mondial Assistance. Thanks to this partnership, we can offer all our travel customers – businessmen, families, skiers – very attractive insurance solutions and policies specifically adapted to their needs,» declares Odile Delhove, E-Commerce Ancillary Revenues Manager for Eurostar.

« We are proud to afford millions of Eurostar travellers the peace of mind they deserve by insuring their travel plans easily and simply,» says Erick Morazin, Director of e-Commerce for Mondial Assistance.
